His Journey's Just Begun

By E. Brenneman

*Don't think of him as gone away
His journey's just begun,
Life holds so many facets,
This earth is only one...*

*Just think of him as resting
From the sorrows and the tears
In a place of warmth and comfort
Where there are no days or years.*

*Think how he must be wishing
That we could know today
How nothing but our sadness
Can really pass away.*

*And think of him as living
In the hearts of those he touched...
For nothing loved is ever lost
And Ned was loved so much.*

Psalm 23

*The lord is my shepherd: I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside still waters.
He restoreth my soul:*

*He leadeth me in paths of righteousness
For His name's sake.*

*Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death
I will fear no evil:
For thou art with me, thy rod and thy staff
they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
In the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil:
My cup runneth over.*

*Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
All the days of my life:
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

God's Garden

*God looked around his garden
and found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.*

*He put His arms around you,
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.*

*He knew you were suffering,
He knew that you were in pain.
He knew that you would never,
Get well on earth again.*

*He saw the road was getting rough,
And the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids,
And whispered, "Peace be thine."*

*It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.*
